GEMÄLDE IN MUSEEN – DEUTSCHLAND, ÖSTERREICH, SCHWEIZ

degruyter.com/databases
The online edition Paintings in Museums presents a systematic index of the entire holdings of works, both on display and in deposits, owned by 645 museums in Germany, Austria and Switzerland.

A comprehensive and current catalogue for over 178,000 paintings, pastels, gouaches as well as mixed-media works from all ages, genres and styles of about 31,200 artists is therefore available to the user.

The database contains three parts linked to each other:

- Paintings: descriptions (title, date of origin, format, classification, style, material and inventory number) of the paintings available in the museums.
- Artists: Names and short biographical information on the artists of whom paintings are described; many entries are linked to the database Artists of the World Online for a more detailed biographical description (separate subscription necessary).
- Museums: Addresses and contact information for all museums from which paintings are described.

- Only inventory of 178,000 paintings in 645 museums in Germany, Austria and Switzerland
- Detailed information on paintings including year of origin, technique, format, theme, artist, museum
- A variety of combinable search criteria, e.g. painting title, classification (painting), date of origin, artist, and museum
- Creation of lists
- Link to Allgemeines Künstlerlexikon Online (Artists of the World Online)
- Non-restrictive DRM – allows for an unlimited number of simultaneous users campus/institution-wide
